

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, May 3. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 7.

Lisle, May 3.

P Reparations being made for consecrating the Elector of Cologne, an Archbishop, the Elector of Bavaria came hither on Saturday last from Mons, and was welcom'd with a Discharge of the Cannon, and receiv'd at the Gate by the Magistrates, who conducted him to the Palace fitted up for him, and made him the usual Present of Wine. The same Evening the Elector of Cologne went to a Country Seat in the Neighbourhood of this City and lay there; the next Morning he came back hither, and went to his Brother's Palace. The whole Garrison appear'd in Arms, and lin'd the Streets from the Palace to St. Peter's Church. At 9 a Clock the Horse-Guards and Cuirassiers of both Electors, began the March, and were follow'd by several Coaches with 6 Horses, in which were the Lords and Gentlemen of the Courts of both Princes; then came the Heralds of Arms; then a great Number of Gentlemen on Horseback; and last of all a Coach of State, in which were the two Electors: They were receiv'd at the Church Door by the Archbishop of Cambray, and the Bishops of Ipres, Arras, St. Omer, and Namur, as also by 26 Abbots and Prelates all mired, by the Suffragan of Cologne, and by the Deputies of that Chapter and of that of Liege. The Ceremony ended at 1 a Clock, and the Electors with all their Company were conducted to the Town-House, where a noble Entertainment was provided. Salvoes of Artillery were made; and at Night there were Bonfires and Illuminations. The Elector of Cologne's Picture was put up under a Canopy in the Front of the Town-House; Wine was let run, and Medals were thrown among the People.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 6.

Maubeuge, May 2. This Morning our whole Garrison, consisting of 7 Battallions and 2 Squadrons, march'd from hence towards Namur, having with them 200 Waggon's with Meal, Oats, Tents &c. We expect 450 Men of the Country-Militia, to keep Garrison here during the Campaigne. The new Lines that are made from Mons to the Pieton, are strengthen'd with 4 large Rebouts, and the Ground being low before the Lines, Sluyces are made to overflow it on Occasion.

Huy, May 3. The Enemy have made no Motion yet in these Parts; but their Troops are in a Readyness to move at the first Order. They have also some Artillery ready on the Maese near Charlemont, as if they design'd to make some Attempt on this side.

Namur, May 3. The encamping of our Troops is put off for some Days because of the cold Weather; in the mean Time the Forces canton'd hereabouts are augmented daily. We shall endeavour to make a Diversion on this side, to which end several Boats are provided for laying Bridges over the Maese.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 7.

Liege, May 3. 'Tis advis'd from the Enemies Frontiers, that the Elector of Bavaria is expected at Mons to Day from Lisle; that the French Troops are all drawing to the Frontier; and that the Inspectors and M. de Chamillard's Son continue to view the Troops and Fortifications. The French seem to design to form 2 Camps, one between Lisle and Tonnay, the other between Mons and Charlemont: On the Fortifications of which 2 last Places they keep Men hard at Work, as if they apprehended the Allies would open the Campaign with the Siege of one of them.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 6.

Brussels, May 2. Some Regiments of our Garrison are march'd out, to canton in the Villages of the open Country. All the Villages between this Town, and those of Louvain and Mechlen, are full of Forces already canton'd; and several Passages of the Wood of Soignes are stop'd, for hindring the Enemy from insulting those Troops so canton'd. The Earl of Albemarle is canton'd in our Neighbourhood, with the Troops drawn out at Liege, Westricht, and other Places on the Maese: And has his Quarter at the Castle of Beaulieu situate a League from our Canal. 'Tis said all will be in Motion by the Middle of this Month to form the Army.

Hague, May 3. The Chapter of Munster having sent an Express to their Minister here, to demand that Collonel Nagel and his Regiment may be sent back to that Bishoprick, that Minister deliver'd a Memorial on that Subject to the States, who immediately return'd Answer by a Resolution in which they grant the Demand of the Chapter. This ready Compliance makes it conjectur'd, that 'twas a Matter concerted; and that that Part of the Chapter who were against the Bishop of Paderborn, finding he will carry his Point, concurr with the others in every thing that may be acceptable to him who is shortly to be declar'd their Bishop. The last Letters from Vienna advise, that the Emperour's gracious Answer to the Letter of Submission written to him by the said Bishop, was ready to be dispatch'd to him. The Difference between the Province of Holland and that of Zeeland, about the Ships laden with French Brandy, belonging to the Subjects of the former that were last Year taken by the Privateers of the latter, and adjudg'd by the Admiralty of Zeeland to be Prizes, is in a fair Way of Accomodation. For, it is already provisionally agreed between the Deputies of Holland and those of Zeeland, that the Admiralty of the latter have Authority to judge whether the same are lawful Prizes or not; but that for the future the States General may give Passports for importing Brandy, and that the Zealanders shall have due Respect to those Passports. In the mean Time towards making good the Loss sustain'd by the Persons interested in the said adjudg'd Prizes, a Sum is to be assign'd them out of the Fund setled for the Rewards allow'd by the State to encourage Privateers, which Rewards have been withheld during this Controversy between the two Provinces. The only Difficulty that remains to be got over, is, that the Zealanders (pursuant to the Placard of the States General prohibiting the Importation of French Brandy) pretend to confiscate all the rest of the Goods found in the Prizes that had Brandy on board, and belonging to the Owners of the Brandy: This is a Point still to be setled.

Hague, May 6. According to the ordinary Advices of the 16th of April from Rome, the Pope has not yet terminated the Affair of Munster. They tell us Cardinal Grimani receiv'd the Emperour's Letters about that Affair the 14th, and had Audience of the Pope the 15th, but 'twas believ'd did not then communicate to his Holiness the Orders he had receiv'd. The Bishop of Paderborn has not yet receiv'd the Emperour's Answer to his Letter of Submission: That Bishop's Minister, M. Duckar, arriv'd here last Night. He had been in several Courts of Germany, to solicit that his Master might be invited to send Deputies to the Circle of Westphalia, but the Elector of Hanover and the Elector Palatin excus'd themselves, tho' the King of Prussia was willing to it on his Part. Letters from Paris of the 2d of this Month, tell us that the Court of France had under Consideration the raising a considerable Sum of Money, by obliging the Gentlemen of the long Robe who have Offices or Practice in the Courts of Justice and of the Finances, to pay certain Sums, for Parents testifying their Ability to discharge their Offices or exercise their Profession. Which Proj^t, having been rumour'd abroad, it seems some Wag of a Lawyer sent a Prop^sl to the Ministry, that all Persons married or to be married should be oblig'd to purchase Certificates declaring their Ability to perform the Matrimonial Functions.

By J. Yarwell and Ralph Sterrop at the old Spectacle-Shop in Ludgate-street. Mr. Wildev and Brandith have the folly to believe that abundance of Words is sufficient to gain Applause and therefore throw 'em out without regard to Truth or Reason, but as that is an Affront to the Understanding of the Gentlemen that use the Goods they sell, they being Persons of Discerning Judgment, there needs no other Answer to what they have publish'd than to compare one part with another. They set forth with a Lying Vau^t that their Two Foot Telescope would perform the same that a common Four Foot one would do, and when 'twas reply'd that w^{as} false, and a Four Foot one off' d to try they poorly shift off with crying that's one of your best Four Foot one, now we profess to make none but best, the Glasses of every one: being true Ground and rightly adjusted, and the difference in Price aris^s only from the goodness, Ornaments and Convenience of the Case, neither can he produce a Four Foot one of any Body's make that does not far exceed his Two Foot, nor does his Two Foot one at all exceed ours, which they don't now pretend. And therefore the Lye is all on his Side, and the impossibility in his pretensions is as strong as ever, and what we have said is just Truth, and his foul Language no better than Billingsgate Railing. But it seems because we do not treat him in his own way, and decry his Goods as much as he does other Mⁿs, he has the Folly to Construe it as an acknowledgment that his Excell^{ty} But we are so far from allowing that, that we do avow they have nothing to brag of but what they Learn'd of us, and Brandith was so indifferent a Workman that Marshall who had taken him for a Journeyman was fain to turn him off. The Secrets they brag of is all a falsehood, and the Microscope the same that any one may have from Culpeper who is the maker. We have already told the World that we will venture any Wager upon the performance of our Two Foot Telescope against theirs, and we would be glad to have it taken up that we might have the opportunity of shewing that ours Exceeds, and letting the World see that his Brags are only such as Mount-banks make in Medicine.
